BAITINORE, Sept. 11, 1851.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: I feel it a duty to make known the benefits I have derived from Dr. Hampton's Tincture. For a length of time I have been subject to great prostration of muscular power, and great debility of the norvous system, accompanied with palpitation and fluttering of the heart. I had such sudden attacks that on one occasion I could scarcely get home. I making mention of my case to a friend, he referred me to Joseph R. Stapleton, eaq., an old and highly respectable citizen of Baltimore, who had used the Tincture under similar circumstances. I called on Mr. Stapleton, and, after an interview of some minutes, I was fully satisfied of the medical virtues of the Tincture, from the evidence before me, of his own person, who, for some time previous, indicated a failing state of health, but now a hearty, hale appearance, with the activity of youth. I immediately commenced using the Tincture, and, before I took the contents of one bottle, my strength was renewed, and I can walk as brisk and am as active as I was twenty years ago. This Tincture is the grand restorative of the digestive organs, which when destroyed, the whole system is in a state of suffering.

I do assert it is no humbug, but is, in reality, what it is represented to be by Dr. Hampton, the inventor.

Portsonouti, (Ya.,) Aug. 18, 1851.

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsis, loss of appetite, dizziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

COTTON PLANT,

A SOUTHERN JOURNAL, PUBLISHED WEEKLY, TO ADVOCATE DIRECT TRADE, MANUFACTURES, AGRICULTURE, AND THE DEVEL-OPMENT OF SOUTHERN RESOURCES,

BY C. G. BAYLOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE importance of such a journal as the above needs no exposition. The material and substantial interests of the South have been too long neglected. The "Cotros Plany" is established to promote these interests, keeping entirely alcof from party or party politics. A complete foreign and domestic correspondence has been arranged. The best talent of the country will contribute to our columns, which will present a medium of general communication, correspondence, and information for the friends of the measures we advocate. The proper steps have been taken in Europe and America to lay the foundation of a direct foreign trade at the South, and to introduce our coarse manufactures into the continental European market. One object of the "Corron Plany" will be, as the organ of direct trade, to stimulate the South to carry out this important measure.

We call upon the Southern merchants generally to send us their business cards, that we may lay them before the country, to enable the friends of Southern commerce, manufactures, &c., to discriminate properly in their desire to promote Southern enterprise.

The importance of Washington City, as a point of location for such a journal, especially in regard to opening foreign correspondence and promoting our foreign relations, is apparent. The opportunity of seeing here, also, members of Congress from every district of the country, presents means of general co-operation not to be found elsewhere.

To the Cotton, Sugar, Rice, and Tobacco Planters, we look confidently for support; and to the friend, of "Direct Trade" throughout the South we say, "show your faith by your works."

The regular issue of the "Corron Plant" will commence Editors' Correspondence.

From our Baltimore Correspondent.]

BALTIMORE, June 8-9 p. m. Our City-The Whig Convention. Our city presents a quiet and harmonious aspect to what it did last week.

In the Convention to be held next week, let the Whigs show their magnanimity. Let them exhibit to the world that they have good judgment and independence enough to bestow their laurels and honors upon men who have won them, not only with their blood and bravery on the battle-field, but by their imperishable patriotism and nobility of intellect. I would rather suffer defeat with such men as my leaders than obtain victory with a captain in command known to be unfit for his position. Extensive preparations are making for the Whig Convention. There will be an immense crowd here, far surpassing that on the recent Democratic occasion. New York and Pennsylvania will send out a perfect CHESAPEARE. avalanche.

Affairs in Georgetown.

Georgetown, June 9-12 m.

The Methodist Sabbath-school were accompanied on the excursion yesterday by a large number of the citizens of Washington, as well as Georgetown. The boat left her wharf about 9 o'clock a. m., proceeded about forty miles down the river, and returned about 7 o'clock p. m. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, they were unable to land at any point. The Rev. Thos. Sewall delivered one of his interesting discourses on board the boat; and the choir of the church, together with a fine band, enlivened the occasion with good music. All who went were highly pleased with the trip. Everything passed off in good style, and not an accident of any kind happened throughout the day to disturb the happiness of any. The whole affair was under the direction of Mr. Jenkin Thomas, chief mar-

A gentleman, who has just returned from a trip up the canal, assures me that he has no doubt, if the weather continues favorable, the repairs will be completed and the whole line in navigable order by the first of the ensuing month.

There was quite a rejoicing among the Democrats of our town yesterday, over what they termed the triumphant victory of their party in your city. Some of them say they have bought the Whigs out-good-will, fixtures, and every thing !

There is but little doing in the flour or grain market, and no change in prices. ELECTRO.

> From the Richmond Whig.] The Platform.

The platform of the Democratic Convention is a very tessellated affair. Like a log-rolling bill, it has a little of everything in it. It is designed to furnish a foothold for every shade and variety of opinion; and yet, in many particulars, it is a very decided failure. The adoption of the principles of the Declaration of Independence was certainly a bright idea, and gives a very emphatic proof of the progressive spirit of Democracy. The man who invented that deserves a gourd button by way of encouragement for future efforts. The old platforms of 1844 and 1848 are thrust in head and ears, and cut a rather awkward figure by the side of the resolutions of 1798 and 1799. It is unconstitutional, it is said, "to commence and carry on" internal improvements; the meaning of which is said to be, you may complete all that have ever been started. This mode of interpreting the constitution is on the Jacksonian principle of improving rivers below ports of entry. First declare a place at the head of any river a port of entry, and you may stretch the constitution to meet the case. As to the public lands, a different principle is observed. There you contract the constitution to meet the contingency. A general distribution of all the States is highly improper and grossly unconstitutional; but a partial distribution among particular States is the very perfection of rigid construction The late war with Mexico was a very righteous war; but nothing is said in favor of the revolutionary war, and that of 1812. Whence it is to be inferred that neither of those great struggles is a favorite with the Democracy The endorsement of the Compromise is couched in very strange terms. The resolution of 1848 is preserved, which Mr. Townsend, of Ohio, said embodied the principles of the Freesoil partydenying, as it does, that Congress has any right to touch the subject of slavery. But appended to this is an explanation, shaped very much like the resolution of the Illinois convention, which was prepared by the notorious Freesoiler, Wentworth. It may mean something, or nothing. Supposing it to mean something, it places the Southern Rights and the Freesoil wings of the party in a dilemma. They have both vehemently protested against the Compromise, and sworn they never would support it. But the word "finality" is carefully omitted, and that omission was probably designed to ease tender consciences and strip the resolution of all its force. In this connexion, it is to be remarked that, although Gen. Pierce was one of the gentlemen catechised by Capt. Scott, he was the only one who did not respond. He discreetly kept his opinions to him-

The last resolution is a paragon of unmeaning generalities. For the life of us we can extract nothing from it. We suppose it was thrown in for "the rest of mankind.

We do not find in the whole platform a single plank for the State Rights party to stand upon inless the empty endorsement of the Declaration of Independence and the resolutions of '98-99 was designed for them. They are nice hair-splitters, and very little space will suffice for They love abstractions more than realities, and, therefore, both the nominees are old Jack soman proclamationists. They will have abuniant occupation for their wits in devising reasons for supporting men who differ from them on

We had expected a more taking platform—one more trank and explicit, and more thoroughgoing. For words cost Democratic politicians nothing They are always ready with any quantity of pledges—and our only wonder is, that they have been so sparing of them on this important occasion if ever there was a time when they stood in particular need of a great deal of hard swearing, now is the time. They have heretofore duped the South on four or five very critical emergencies; and there is a very natural and wide-spread distrust of them. They swore by Van Buren, they swore by Cass, by Wm. J. Brown, and by Gov. Joe Johnson—all of whom turned out to be very different from what they were represented to be; and the latter proves to be a higher-law gentleman of the very first water. Upon the heel of these unfortunate experiments, UNITED STATES HOTEL,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Upon the heel of these unfortunate experiments, to bring forward a native of New Hampshire, of whom little is known, as the peculiar rich of the whom little is known, as the peculiar friend of the South, is to subject Southern confidence to an extraordinary trial.
